2016 Tour Highlights

Dolomiti and Slovenian Alps Tour

For the first time, Breaking Away will venture to Slovenia. Combining the jagged peaks of the Dolomites with the undiscovered Julian Alps in Slovenia is sure to be any riders dream. We are very excited to add this to our 2016 tour schedule. Expect challenging rides, beautiful scenery and the outstanding Breaking Away Team supporting and cheering you on, all the way!

Adriatic Sea & Apennines Tour

Where the mountains meet the sea...join us for this Italian cycling vacation and enjoy the best of both worlds. Spend multiple nights at our our seafront, four star resort doing cycling loops exploring Emilia-Romagna and nearby San Marino. Finishing your journey with multiple nights in the Apennines Mountain at another four star thermal bath resort doing cycling loops during the day and getting pampered in the afternoons.

Breaking Away Staff Features

Joining us for his second year with Breaking Away, we are pleased to introduce Marko Skorjak. Marko is Slovenian and will be assuming the full time position of a Tour Leader and head mechanic/photographer. Marko fluently speaks seven languages and is also a strong cyclist who can challenge and support you on your trip whether you have a language question or mechanical problem with your bike.

2016 Season Update

Free photo flash drive w/trip photos - Breaking Away will be giving every guest or couple their own personal trip photo flash drive so you can relive your memories of a lifetime when you return back home.
